CARROLLTON HONORS THE MEMBERS OF ITS ANNUAL FUND FOUNDERS SOCIETY

To honor its Founders Society members and welcome new families to its ranks, Carrollton School of the Sacred Heart gathered at the start of the year at the home of Randall and Sandra Fiorenza, parents of three Carrollton students. The generous hosts opened their beautiful home on the shores of Biscayne Bay to over 200 parents, alumnae, grandparents, trustees, administrators and friends of Carrollton for an evening of great camaraderie and even greater news. Headmistress Sr. Suzanne Cooke announced that for the second year in a row the Annual Fund effort had reached one million dollars and 100% participation from all the Carrollton families. The raised funds will support the school's need-based scholarship program which currently supports over 25% of the student body with recipients across all grades. The Annual Fund also ensures professional development of its faculty and staff and helps secure curricular enhancements. Introduced by trustee, Mr. Sheldon Anderson, Sr. Cooke brought the Fiorenza children to join her at the podium and explained to the assembled guests the impact of the Annual Fund on all the children the school serves. She expressed her gratitude to the Founders without whose grace-filled and generous leadership the Annual Fund's extraordinary success would not be possible.

TIBOR & SHEILA HOLLO CHARITABLE FOUNDATION DONATES $75,000 TO LAUNCH HEALTHCORPS PROGRAM AT CORAL GABLES SENIOR HIGH

Miami-Dade County School Board and local officials gathered at Coral Gables Senior High School for a check presentation event to launch the HealthCorps program, the unique in-school program founded by world-renowned cardiac surgeon and award-winning host of "The Dr. Oz Show," Dr. Mehmet Oz and his wife, Lisa. For the fifth consecutive year, The Tibor & Sheila Hollo Charitable Foundation donated $75,000 to launch the program to another Miami-Dade County High School. Previous donations by the foundation benefitted Booker T. Washington, Coral Park, and Hialeah High Schools. Miami-Dade County Public Schools Superintendent Alberto Carvalho and Coral Gables Mayor Jim Cason joined Coral Gables High School Principal Adolfo Costa and HealthCorps COO Juan Brea in thanking the Hollos for their special contributions. "I'm here to celebrate, yet again, a remarkable couple. Tibor and Sheila Hollo are friends of the school system, of the children of Miami, and personal friends," said Superintendent Carvalho. "They are people of goodwill who are improving the lives of our children. Thank you Tibor and Sheila and the entire Hollo family," he added.
