

March 3, 2017

Details on 6 of Miami's hottest developments

by JAMES MCCLISTER

MARCH 3, 2017

Miami's real estate market slumped in 2016, with the pace of sales and appreciation slowing. But still, the market remains hot – flushed with buyers from around both the country and the globe.

It's an attractive market with rising but reasonable prices, which is why so many developers are so confidently betting on its success. It's estimated that over the next five years 22,000 new condo units will hit market. It's good news for buyers, who often have an insatiable appetite for options, but somewhat bad news for agents in the sense that they'll have to slog through that many more potential units to find the perfect match for their clients.

We tried to streamline that process a little bit. Below are six of the hottest developments in Greater Miami (organized in no particular order). Filter through each development by clicking the tabs above the table:

Park Grove

Panorama Tower

One Thousand Museum by Zaha Hadid Architects

Paramount Miami Residences

Aria on the Bay

Hyde Midtown

Panorama Tower

Units to be available	821 (rental) (and 208 hotel rooms)
Price range	TBA
Sales contact	Paola Saettone, 1101 Brickell Ave., Suite N100, 305-503-2100
Construction end date	Late 2017, early 2018
Address	1100 Brickell Bay Drive Miami