

Austin Hollo

VICE PRESIDENT

Florida East Coast Realty, LLC
60 Years/60 Million sq ft of construction

Austin Hollo joined FECR in 2009, becoming the third generation of the Hollo family to be welcomed into the company. Named as Vice President, Austin quickly has become a valued member of the team, focusing on the development of upcoming projects, the marketing and positioning of existing properties, and the coordination of management and leasing activities. Further, Austin is integrally involved in all financing efforts, oversees the company's entire insurance portfolio, and is responsible for underwriting and evaluating any real estate acquisitions and investments.

Austin graduated from the Olin School of Business at Washington University in St. Louis in 2007, with BSBA's in Finance and Marketing, as well as a minor in Organizational Psychology. Prior to joining FECR, he spent two years as an analyst in the Real Estate Finance and Servicing Group at LNR Partners, Inc. in Miami Beach, Florida, working on the acquisition, surveillance, servicing, and disposition of Commercial Mortgage-Backed Securities (CMBS).

Additionally, Austin is the Chair-Elect for the New Leaders Taskforce for the Beacon Council and a Director on BBVA Compass Bank's South Florida Market Advisory Board. He is a member of the Developing Leaders Group for the National Association of Industrial and Office Properties (NAIOP) South Florida Chapter, the Young Leaders Group for the Urban Land Institute (ULI) of Southeast Florida, and the United Way of Miami-Dade Young Leaders. He also has served on the New World Center Livability Task Force for Downtown Miami and lectured at Florida International University's Hollo School of Real Estate, and has been selected as one of Brickell Magazine's Top 20 Professionals Under 40 for 2017.
