

Austin Hollo

SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT

Florida East Coast Realty, LLC
60 Years/60 Million sq ft of construction

Austin Hollo joined FECR in 2009, becoming the third generation of the Hollo family to be welcomed into the company. Named as Senior Vice President, Austin quickly has become a valued member of the team, focusing on the development of upcoming projects, the marketing and positioning of existing properties, and the coordination of property management and leasing activities, as well as the company's strategic vision, day-to-day administration and operations, and business development. Further, Austin is integrally involved in all financing efforts, oversees the company's risk management and insurance portfolio, and is responsible for underwriting and evaluating any real estate acquisitions and investments.

Austin graduated from the Olin School of Business at Washington University in St. Louis in 2007, with BSBA's in Finance and Marketing, as well as a minor in Organizational Psychology. Prior to joining FECR, he spent two years as an analyst in the Real Estate Finance and Servicing Group at LNR Partners, Inc. in Miami Beach, Florida, working on the acquisition, surveillance, servicing, and disposition of Commercial Mortgage-Backed Securities (CMBS).

Additionally, Austin serves as Immediate Past Chair of the New Leaders Taskforce and Member of the Funding/Development Committee for the Miami-Dade Beacon Council, Executive Committee Member and Co-Chair of Development for the United Way of Miami-Dade Young Leaders, Director on BBVA Compass Bank's South Florida Market Advisory Board, and Advisory Board Member for Florida International University's Center for Leadership. He is a member of the Developing Leaders Group for the National Association of Industrial and Office Properties South Florida Chapter, the Young Leaders Group for the Urban Land Institute of Southeast Florida, and the Young Professionals of the Lighthouse for the Miami Lighthouse for the Blind and Visually Impaired. Austin also was selected as one of Brickell Magazine's Top 20 Professionals Under 40 for 2017.
