Austin Hollo

Florida East Coast Realty (FECR) Chief Operating Officer, Austin Hollo, has been newly appointed to the Greater Miami Chamber of Commerce (GMCC) Executive Committee, as well as to the United Way Miami Board of Directors. Both organizations are comprised of local business leaders from a myriad of industries.

The Chamber, which represents more than 400,000 member company employees, is heralded for its legacy of leadership in economic development and its unwavering commitment to improving the Miami-Dade community. Hollo serves on the GMCC Board of Directors and New World Center Committee, as well. “Since joining the Chamber, I have seen tremendous progress in promoting Miami’s vibrant business community,” said Hollo. “It is truly an honor to be selected, and I am excited to continue working together with GMCC’s President & CEO, Alfred Sanchez, to fuel the advancement of our great city.”

United Way Miami is a driving force in the community, responding to emerging needs and transforming people’s lives. The organization leverages its unique role to help ensure that Miami-Dade residents have access to high-caliber education and the opportunity to lead healthy and financially secure lives. Hollo is also a long-standing member of the Young Leaders Executive Committee for United Way Miami. “At United Way, our goal is to improve the lives of underserved residents,” said Hollo. “It is a privilege to further this mission and to work alongside true pillars of our community.”

Austin Hollo joined FECR in 2009, as the third generation of the Hollo family to be welcomed into the company. He focuses on the development of upcoming projects, the marketing and positioning of existing properties, and the coordination of property management and leasing activities, as well as the company’s strategic vision, day-to-day administration and operations, and business development. Further, he is integrally involved in all financing efforts, oversees the company’s risk management and insurance portfolio, and is responsible for underwriting and evaluating any real estate acquisitions and investments.

Additionally, Hollo serves on the Advisory Boards for Florida International University's Tibor and Sheila Hollo School of Real Estate and Center for Leadership, as well as on the Board of Directors, Funding Development Committee, and New Leaders Taskforce (Past Chair) for the Miami-Dade Beacon Council.
