Our Goals

The FIU Tibor and Sheila Hollo School of Real Estate aims to lead globally in real estate education and research, offering undergraduate and graduate programs that prepare students for successful careers. By fostering strong ties with the industry and providing opportunities for networking, mentorship, and professional development, the school strives to produce graduates who are equipped to navigate and impact the dynamic real estate market.

Our History

Established in 2012 through a partnership between the Tibor & Sheila Hollo Charitable Foundation and Florida International University, the FIU Tibor and Sheila Hollo School of Real Estate was created to advance real estate education within the College of Business. The school has since become a global leader in real estate research and education, offering unique programs and attracting distinguished faculty to guide the next generation of real estate professionals.

Our Services

The FIU Tibor and Sheila Hollo School of Real Estate provides a comprehensive education in real estate through undergraduate and graduate programs. It offers scholarships, hosts the Real Estate Student Association for networking and career development, and collaborates with industry leaders through its Real Estate Council and Hollo Advisory Board. These initiatives foster connections between students and the real estate community, enhancing professional opportunities and contributing to the industry's growth.

Our Impact on the Community

The Hollo School of Real Estate significantly impacts the community by producing skilled real estate professionals who contribute to the industry's growth, which is vital to the South Florida economy. Through research, education, and industry collaboration, the school drives innovation and addresses real-world challenges in the real estate market. Its graduates are well-prepared to lead and shape the future of real estate in Miami, South Florida, and beyond, benefiting the broader community.

Volunteer Opportunities

FIU Business and the Hollo School of Real Estate welcomes alumni and other business leaders to share their knowledge with our students by speaking on campus and participating in panel discussions. There are also opportunities to speak at events, such as the annual REact Real Estate Conference hosted by the Hollo School, and to serve on our advisory boards, which include the Hollo Real Estate Advisory Board and the Real Estate Council.

Our Upcoming Fundraisers

REACT REAL ESTATE CONFERENCE | FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 8, 2024 | FIU GRAHAM CENTER BALLROOMS, 11200 SW 8TH STREET, MIAMI, FL 33174

Strategic Innovations: Next Gen Development, Investment, and Management.

The Conference's A-List roster of established and 'Next Gen' industry leaders addresses the trends in strategic innovation that will further propel Miami's dynamic real estate and hospitality industries.

Other Ways to Support us

The accomplishments of FIU Business and the Hollo School of Real Estate would not be possible with the support of our alumni and other friends in the community. Gifts, whether time, talent, or treasure, inspire our students to think creatively and seek innovative ways to find solutions to the challenges facing Greater Miami and the world. Gifts power every aspect of education and research at FIU Business, from internships and financial aid to research and faculty support, making an immediate impact on the lives of our students, faculty, staff, and community. SPONSORED BY: Tibor & Sheila Hollo CHARITABLE FOUNDATION

Since 2012, the Tibor & Sheila Hollo School of Real Estate at Florida International University (FIU) has empowered students to excel in a fast-paced, competitive real estate and business environment.

Real estate is a dynamic profession, one that challenges our best minds to explore how to use our limited resources to finance and create useful, exciting places to live, work, and play. The Tibor & Sheila Hollo Foundation is honored to be associated with Florida International University. Through this collaboration, our goal is to make this the very best program of its kind in the nation. We look forward to the progress attained in the study of real estate, guided by the outstanding scholars at FIU.
