MIAMI – (October 30, 2014) – Florida East Coast Realty (FECR) Chairman & President Tibor Hollo, owner of Colonnade Plaza (1201 Brickell Avenue), has announced that CVS/pharmacy has opened a new location in the company's eight-story office building in the heart of Brickell. CVS/pharmacy, the nation's leading retail pharmacy, occupies over 10,000 square feet on the ground floor of the building with the entrance located directly on Brickell Avenue.

"We are pleased to welcome CVS/pharmacy to Colonnade Plaza. Our office tenants and residents at Brickell Bay Plaza, the 643-unit condominium directly connected to the office building, will be extremely pleased to have such convenient access to the retail pharmacy. It is a fantastic addition to our building and to the Brickell neighborhood as a whole," says Hollo.

The new CVS/pharmacy offers a full-service pharmacy, including immunizations seven days a week with no appointment needed; high quality health, beauty, and personal care products; private label products that come with a 100% money back guarantee; digital photo processing and gifts; and the CVS/pharmacy ExtraCare Program, the nation's largest rewards program that provides customers money back, special savings, and offers that are earned by shopping in-store or online at www.cvs.com.

Colonnade Plaza boasts a "Roman-esque" style exterior architecture, with soaring structural columns. The elegantly-designed building features nine-foot, floor-to-ceiling windows, valet parking, 24-hour security, and desirable amenities. Located at the crossroads of Brickell Avenue and Coral Way, Colonnade Plaza offers a prestigious office address in the sought-after Brickell financial district.
